DETECTIVE WILLIAM MARTIN ANSWER AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES TO PLAINTIFF’S SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendant, William Martin (“Martin”), by and through his attorneys of record, for his answer and affirmative defenses to Plaintiff, Annabel K. Melongo’s (“Plaintiff”) Second Amended Complaint (“Complaint”), states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Eight years ago, Plaintiff was arrested and charged with computer tampering based on the unsupported, false allegations of her former employer, Defendant Carol Spizzirri.

ANSWER: Denied.

2. Defendant Spizzirri was the Founder and President of a now defunct non-profit organization known as Save a Life Foundation (“SALF”). Defendant Spizzirri held herself out as a certified nurse who began SALF after she lost her daughter in a fatal hit and run car accident. Defendant Spizzirri claimed that her daughter’s life would have been saved had she received prompt emergency first aid at the scene of the accident. Based on this story, Defendant Spizzirri created SALF with a purported mission of training emergency responders in life supporting first aid.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 2 of Plaintiff’s Complaint.

3. In and around spring, 2006, Defendant Spizzirri and SALF came under scrutiny for its questionable financial activities. Spizzirri was exposed as a serial fabricator who lied about her credentials (she is not a certified nurse) and the underlying facts of her daughter’s death (her daughter crashed her own car while under the influence of alcohol and did not die as a result of not receiving first aid emergency care). Critically, serious questions were raised regarding SALF’s use of nearly $9 million of state and federal funding.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 3 of Plaintiff’s Complaint.

4. Around that time, SALF’s computer servers crashed, allegedly deleting hundreds of financial records. Defendant Spizzirri falsely accused Plaintiff, her former employee, of causing the deletion of SALF’s financial records. On information and belief, Defendant Spizzirri herself was responsible for SALF’s computer crash and the resulting destruction of financial records.

ANSWER: Martin admits that Spizziri accused Plaintiff of tampering with SALF’s computers. Martin denies that the charge was false. Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 4 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

5. Defendant Spizzirri used her influence and power with Illinois politicians, including Former Cook County State's Attorney Dick Devine to embark on a 'with hunt' of Plaintiff and frame Plaintiff for computer tampering.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 5 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

6. Defendants Roberts, Martin, and French conducted no meaningful investigation of Spizzirri's claims, ignored exculpatory evidence, and falsely charged and prosecuted Plaintiff for the offense of computer tampering.

ANSWER: Denied.

7. On July 29, 2014, Plaintiff was exonerated of all computer tampering charges.

ANSWER: Admitted.

8. On April 13, 2010, while Plaintiff's computer tampering charges pended in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Plaintiff was arrested again without probable cause for violating the Illinois Eavesdropping Statute, recently struck down as unconstitutional by the Illinois Supreme Court, People v. Melongo, 2014 IL 114852 (March 20, 2014). See also, ACLU of Illinois v. Anita Alvarez, 679 F. 3d 583 (7th Cir. 2012).

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 8 of Plaintiff's Complaint. Martin affirmatively states that he had no involvement whatsoever with regard to the eavesdropping prosecution.

9. Plaintiff was accused of secretly recording three separate telephone conversations she had with Pamela Taylor, a supervisor in the Official Court Reporters Office of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Criminal Division and posting those conversations to her website www.illinoiscorruption.net.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 9 of Plaintiff's Complaint. Martin affirmatively states that he had no involvement whatsoever with regard to the eavesdropping prosecution.

10. At that time, Plaintiff's website www.illinoiscorruption.net chronicled her efforts to defend against criminal charges of computer tampering which she claimed were the product of prosecutorial misconduct and political corruption. Plaintiff's states purpose in maintaining her website is to expose corruption in the Cook County criminal justice system.

ANSWER: Martin denies that the computer tampering charges were the product of prosecutorial misconduct or political corruption. Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 10 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

11. Even though Defendants knew that Plaintiff's conduct of recording Taylor was protected under a statutory exemption of the Illinois Eavesdropping statute, Defendants arrested, detained, and later maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff for violating the Eavesdropping Statute. Defendants did so to retaliate against Plaintiff for exercising her First Amendment rights to free speech and freedom of press.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 11 of Plaintiff's Complaint. Martin

affirmatively states that he had no involvement whatsoever with regard to the eavesdropping prosecution.

12. Plaintiff's charges for eavesdropping were dismissed in their entirety on July 26, 2012. However, Plaintiff was incarcerated at the Cook County Jail for 20 months as a result of the eavesdropping charges and spent an additional six (6) months on house arrest before the dismissal of the charges.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 12 of Plaintiff's Complaint. Martin affirmatively states that he had no involvement whatsoever with regard to the eavesdropping prosecution.

13. After eight years, 20 months of incarceration, two trials, and an appeal, Plaintiff has been vindicated of all wrongdoing.

ANSWER: Martin admits that the computer tampering charges were dismissed at trial but has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 13 of Plaintiff's Complaint. Martin affirmatively states that he had no involvement whatsoever with regard to the eavesdropping prosecution.

PARTIES

14. Plaintiff Annabel Melongo is an adult resident citizen of Cook County, Illinois.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 14 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

15. On information and belief Defendant Robert Podlasek is an adult resident of Cook County, Illinois. At all times material hereto, Defendant Podlasek was a duly appointed Assistant

Cook County State's Attorney and was acting under the color of state law. Podlasek is sued individually and in his official capacity as an Assistant Cook County State's Attorney.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 15 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

16. On information and belief Defendant Julie Gunnigle is an adult resident of Cook County, Illinois. At all times material hereto, Defendant Gunnigle was a duly appointed Assistant Cook County State's Attorney and was acting under the color of state law. Gunnigle is sued individually and in her official capacity as an Assistant Cook County State's Attorney.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 16 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

17. On information and belief Defendants Dillon, Rubino, and Lesiak (and unknown Cook County sheriff officers) are adult residents of Cook County, Illinois. At all times material hereto, Defendant Dillon, Rubino, and Lesiak were duly appointed members of the Cook County Sheriff's Department and were acting by virtue of their position as a law enforcement officer and under color of state law. They are sued in their individual and official capacities as officer of the Cook County Sheriff's Department.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 17 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

18. On information and belief, Defendant Kyle French is an adult resident of Anchorage, Alaska. At all times material hereto, Defendant French was a duly appointed Assistant Illinois Attorney General and was acting under color of state law. French is sued individually and in his official capacity as an Assistant Attorney General.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 18 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

19. On information and belief, Dr. Matthew S. Markos is an adult resident of Cook County, Illinois. At all times material hereto, Dr. Markos was the director of Forensic Clinical Services and was acting in a law enforcement capacity and under color of state law. Markos is sued individually and in his official capacity.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 19 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

20. Cook County Sheriff, Thomas Dart, was elected Sheriff of Cook County and was responsible for the day to day operation of the Cook County Jail, including his employees. Dart in his capacity as Cook County Sheriff existed as such under the laws of the State of Illinois and the United States.

ANSWER: Martin admits that Thomas Dart is the Sheriff of Cook County. Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 20 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

21. Cook County is a municipality chartered by the State of Illinois and as such is a political subdivision of the State of Illinois and among its other functions operates and maintains a law enforcement agency known as the Cook County Sheriff's Department. Cook County is under a duty to run its policing activities in a lawful manner so as to preserve the rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed and secured to them by the constitutions and laws of the United States and the State of Illinois.

ANSWER: Martin admits that Cook County is a municipality, but has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 21 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

22. On information and belief, Defendant Roberts is an adult resident of Cook County, Illinois. At all times material hereto, Defendant Roberts was a duly appointed member of the Cook County State's Attorney's office and was acting by virtue of his position as a law enforcement officer and under color of state law. He is sued in his individual and official capacity as an investigator in the office of the Cook County State's Attorney.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 22 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

23. Schiller Park Detective William Martin is an adult resident of Cook County, Illinois. At all times material hereto, Defendant Martin was a duly appointed member of the Schiller Park Police Department and was acting by virtue of his position as a law enforcement officer and under color of state law. Defendant Martin is sued in his individual and official capacity as officer of the Schiller Park Police Department.

ANSWER: Martin denies that he resides in Cook County. Martin admits that he was (and is) a duly appointed member of the Village of Schiller Park police department and that, at all relevant times to Plaintiff's Complaint, he was acting in his capacity as an agent, servant, and employee of the Village of Schiller Park, and that Plaintiff alleges that he is being sued in his individual and official capacities

24. The Village of Schiller Park is a municipality chartered by the State of Illinois and as such is a political subdivision of the State of Illinois and among its other functions operates and maintains a law enforcement agency known as the Schiller Park Police Department. Schiller Park is under a duty to run its policing activities in a lawful manner so as to preserve the right, privileges, and immunities guaranteed and secured to them by the constitutions and laws of the Unites States and the State of Illinois.

ANSWER: Martin admits that the Village of Schiller Park is a municipality and that it operates a police department, but has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 24 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

25. Carol Spizzirri is an adult resident of San Marcos, California. She was the Founder and President of the save a Life Foundation ("SALF") at all times relevant to the claims herein.

ANSWER: Martin admits that Spizzirri held herself out as the Founder and President of SALF, but has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 25 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26. Each and all acts of defendants, other than Defendant Spizzirri, were performed under the color and pretense of the Constitutions, statutes and ordinances, regulations, customs, and usages of the United States of America, the State of Illinois, the county of Cook, and under the authority of their office as law enforcement officers for cook county, Illinois.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 26 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

27. The incidents which give rise to this cause of action occurred within this jurisdiction and within two years of the filing of this Complaint.

ANSWER: Denied.

28. Venue is proper in this venue pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, as all the defendants are residents of this district and/or all the acts or omissions which give rise to this cause of action occurred within this district.

ANSWER: Admitted.

29. Jurisdiction is proper pursuant to federal question jurisdiction, 28 U.S.C. § 1331, 28 U.S.C. § 1343(a)(3)(4) and 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiffs further invoke the pendent and supplemental jurisdiction of this court to hear and decide claims arising under state law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

ANSWER: Admitted.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff hereby incorporates, in their entirety, each and every paragraph contained in this complaint and by reference makes said paragraphs a part hereof as if fully set forth herein:

30. On October 31, 2006, Plaintiff Melongo was charged with three (3) counts of computer Tampering under 720 ILCS 5/16-D-3(a)(3). The indictment alleged that Plaintiff remotely deleted files, mostly financial, that belonged to the Save-A-Life Foundation (“SALF”), a now defunct non-profit organization with ties to numerous prominent Cook County and Illinois politicians.

ANSWER: Martin admits the allegations contained in paragraph 30 of Plaintiff’s Complaint, but has insufficient information to admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the alleged political ties of SALF.

31. Founded in 1993 by Defendant Spizzirri, SALF’s mission was to pass and help to implement legislation nationwide that would require training in first aid and cardiopulmonary resuscitation for police, firefighters, teachers, public safety workers, and emergency dispatchers. SALF was a member organization of the Federal Emergency Management Agency and received nearly $9 million in federal and state funding during its existence.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 31 of Plaintiff’s Complaint.

32. Defendant Spizzirri cultivated relationships with prominent politicians to advance SALF and gain access to state and federal funding. By way of example, United States Secretary of Education Arne Duncan was a prominent supporter of SALP when he was CEO of the Chicago Public School. Dick Durbin, one of the highest ranking senators in the United States Senate was one of SALF's strongest supporters. Illinois Congresswoman Jan Schankowski sponsored a Congressional Budget earmark for SALF. Former U.S. Senator Republican Norm Coleman sponsored a bill that would have awarded SALF millions if it had passed, and in 2006 the U.S. Conference of Mayors adopted the Community Response Systems Initiative Resolution, committing their support to SALF.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 32 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

33. However, since November of 2006, SALF has been the subject of dozens of news/investigative reports that exposed SALF's founder Defendant Carol Spizzirri as a serial fabricator and questioned the organization's claims, practices, and finances. To date, the greater than $9 million received by SALF in state and federal funds remains unaccounted for. Meanwhile, Defendant Spizzirri has relocated to California, avoiding further scrutiny of her conduct while operating SALF.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 33 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

34. The Illinois Attorney General, Charitable Trust Bureau represents that there is an ongoing investigation into SALF's activities. However, to date, no civil or criminal action has been brought against Defendant Spizzirri.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 34 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

35. In and around mid-2006, Defendant Spizzirri became aware that SALF's financial activities were coming under scrutiny and that her financial activities as the President of SALF might be examined. In fact, in November, 2006, Reporter Chuck Goudie from ABC News Chicago aired a series of investigative reports that discredited Spizzirri and her organization.

ANSWER: Martin admits that he has seen some of Chuck Goudies' reports regarding SALF but has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 35 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

36. In spring, 2006, knowing SALF's financial record might come under review, Defendant Spizzirri falsely accused Plaintiff of remotely deleting financial files from SALF servers, claiming that Plaintiff was angry at Spizzirri for terminating her. Defendant Spizzirri contacted the Illinois Attorney General's office and reached out directly to her personal friend Cook County State's Attorney, Dick Devine, demanding that criminal charges be brought against Plaintiff.

ANSWER: Martin denies that Plaintiff was falsely accused of computer tampering, but has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 36 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

37. On information and belief, Defendant Spizzirri herself caused the destruction of SALF's financial records and then fabricated a narrative accusing Plaintiff of tampering with the SALF servers and causing the destruction of hundreds of financial records. Using her power, influence, and relationships, Defendant Spizzirri embarked on a "witch hunt" to have Plaintiff prosecuted for the offense of computer tampering all while diverting attention away from her own misconduct and questionable financial dealings.

ANSWER: Denied.

38. Specifically, Defendant Spizzirri falsely claimed that Plaintiff had unlawfully accessed Spizzirri's email account and forwarded emails from Spizzirri's account to Plaintiff's Yahoo email address. In truth, Spizzirri herself forwarded the emails in an attempt to paint Melongo as bitter, computer hack whose goal was to retaliate against her former employee by destroying financial records. Defendant Spizzirri also falsely accused Plaintiff of remotely accessing SALF's servers, changing passwords, deleting financial files, and even stealing SALF's credit card numbers for the purpose of making purchases.

ANSWER: Denied.

39. With a directive from Dick Devine, Defendant Cook County Investigator Randy Roberts along with Defendant Kyle French and Defendant Martin accepted Defendant Spizzirri's fabricated theory that Plaintiff had accessed SALF's servers and destroyed hundreds of financial records with no meaningful investigation. Indeed, these Defendants ignored ample exculpatory evidence showing that Plaintiff had no ability to access SALF's servers and could not have committed the offense of computer tampering.

ANSWER: Martin admits that he investigated Spizzirri's claim, but denies remaining allegations contained in paragraph 39 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

40. No factual basis existed to support a finding of probable cause that Plaintiff had committed an act of computer tampering. Notwithstanding, Defendants Roberts, Martin and French effectuated a search of Plaintiff's apartment, arrested Plaintiff, and initiated computer tampering charges against her.

ANSWER: Martin admits to searching Plaintiff's apartment but denies the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 40 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

41. The Illinois Attorney General conducted an in-depth forensic analysis of Plaintiff's computer which resulted in a report thousands and thousands of pages in length. Testimony from the Forensic Expert revealed that no evidence derived from Plaintiff's computer showed that Plaintiff had accessed Defendant Spizzirri's emails or the SALF servers, let alone caused those servers to crash or caused the destruction of hundreds of financial records.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of what anyone testified to and denies the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 41 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

42. Despite this stunning absence of evidence, Defendants Roberts, French, and Martin continued to pursue criminal charges against Plaintiff. Defendant Ma [sic]

ANSWER: Denied.

43. After a finding of no probable cause, the State indicted Plaintiff on three counts of computer tampering on January 17, 2007, based on perjured testimony of Defendant Martin. The State superseded Plaintiff's original indictment with a new indictment on May 28, 2008.

ANSWER: Martin denies Plaintiff's claim that he committed perjury or that there was no probable cause. Defendant has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 43 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

44. The report of proceedings reflects that Plaintiff's counsel appeared in court and entered a plea of not guilty to the superseding indictment on behalf of Plaintiff. Plaintiff did not indicate in the record that she understood the charges and the court directed all communication to her attorney – even referring to Plaintiff in the third person. However, at the conclusion of the proceeding the court inquired about Plaintiff's bond:

The Court: There was some alleged deficiencies in the first indictment that counsel talked about, '07 nolle pros case, superseded by 08-10502. Did she have a cash bond on that, or what kind of bond was she out on?

The Defendant: I-bond.

The Court: I-bond.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 44 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

45. The isolated "I-Bond" statement allegedly uttered by "The Defendant" is the only indication that Plaintiff was present in court on June 18, 2008. Indeed, the docket sheet, the half sheet, the judge's notes, and the court call sheet all indicate that Plaintiff was not present in court that day.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 45 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

46. After reviewing the report of proceedings from the June 18, 2008 court date, Plaintiff contacted the office of the Official Court Reporters and spoke with Official Court Reporter Laurel Laudin who purportedly transcribed the proceedings. Plaintiff told Laudin that she was not present at the June 18, 2008 proceedings and questioned her as to why the transcript suggested she was. Ms. Laudin denied any inaccuracies in the transcript and eventually hung up the phone.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 46 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

47. Laudin later admitted that she destroyed the audio recording of the June 18, 2008 court proceedings which would have proved that Plaintiff was not present at the arraignment.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 47 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

48. On December 10, 2009, Pamela Taylor, the supervisor of the Official Court Reporters contacted Plaintiff and admonished her not to contact Ms. Laudin again. Irritated, Plaintiff hung up the phone. Taylor called Plaintiff back a second time and left a message on her voice mail instructing her to contact Taylor directly if she had any additional questions about the June 18, 2008 transcript.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 48 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

49. Later that day, Plaintiff complied with Taylor's instructions and called her to question and discuss the accuracy of the June 18, 2008 transcripts. Plaintiff recorded the conversation. Plaintiff recorded additional conversations with Taylor in December 15 and December 16, 2009.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 49 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

50. Plaintiff recorded her conversations with Taylor in an effort to gather evidence to prove that she was not actually present for the June 18, 2008 court date where she was allegedly arraigned on a superseding computer tampering indictment. Furthermore, Plaintiff intended to prove that the court reporter fabricated the report of proceedings when she indicated that Defendant was present in open court and later destroyed the audio tape that would have proved that fabrication.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 50 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

51. In November, 2009, Plaintiff created a website known as www.illinoiscorruption.net to chronicle her efforts at defending against the computer tampering charges which she claimed were instituted without probable cause and as a result of political pandering. On her website, Plaintiff states that she launched the site in an attempt to bring public attention to the abuses of the criminal justice system in Illinois.

ANSWER: Martin denies that the computer tampering charges were instituted without probable cause or that they were the result of political pandering. Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 51 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

52. On December 17, 2009, Plaintiff posted her conversation with Taylor on her website www.illinoiscorruption.net. Plaintiff noted that the recording of her conversations with Taylor was protected by 720 ILCS 5/14-3(I), an exemption to the Illinois Eavesdropping statute that permits the secretive recording of conversations to prove a claim.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 52 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

53. Plaintiff also contacted the FBI to report her belief that the June 18, 2008 transcripts were falsified or doctored. FBI agent Dana DePooter testified under oath that she received an email from Plaintiff complaining that the June 18, 2008 transcript had been tampered with or doctored.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 53 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

54. In and around January, 2010, Defendant French of the Illinois Attorney General office began investigating Plaintiff's website and instructed a Senior Computer Evidence Recovery

Technician to capture the website for investigative purposes. On information and belief, French also instructed the technician to monitor Plaintiff's website.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 54 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

55. On January 8, 2010, Plaintiff, acting pro se, filed a motion to dismiss the computer tampering charges on the grounds that the State suborned perjury from its witnesses during the grand jury proceedings that resulted in her indictment.

ANSWER: Martin admits that on a date unknown to Martin, Plaintiff filed a motion to dismiss the computer tampering charges against her and in her petition, Plaintiff claimed that Martin committed perjury during the grand jury proceedings, which he denies. Martin denies the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 55 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

56. On March 3, 2010, the date on which Plaintiff was scheduled to argue her motion to dismiss the charges, Defendants French, Podlasek, and Gunnigle moved to have Plaintiff psychologically examined ("BCX") to determine her fitness to stand trial and to represent herself despite the fact that no evidence suggested that Plaintiff suffered from any mental health issues or that she did not understand the charges against her or could not assist in her own defense.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 56 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

57. Thereafter, Plaintiff posted on her website that "Annabel has a big surprise in store for the court in its attempt to push her out of the case by pretending that she is psychologically imbalanced. The surprise will be known April 14, 2010."

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 57 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

58. On April 13, 2010, Plaintiff submitted to a psychological exam to be conducted by Defendant Markos. While Plaintiff was undergoing the evaluation, Defendants Podlasek and Gunnigle contacted Defendant Dillon instructing Dillon to arrest Plaintiff because of the "inappropriate" "surprise" message posted on her website. Plaintiff explained to Dr. Markos that the surprise to which she referred was her hiring of a new attorney.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 58 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

59. As a result of this direction, unknown Cook County Correctional officers were dispatched to the Criminal Court facility where they interrupted Plaintiff's evaluation by Defendant Markos and asked to speak with Defendant Markos privately.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 59 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

60. After leaving the room for a short period, Defendant Markos returned and began questioning Plaintiff extensively about her website and her entries on the website, including the "surprise" post. Markos attempted to elicit incriminating responses from Plaintiff during this so-called psychological exam about her website.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 60 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

61. Immediately after the evaluation, Plaintiff stepped outside and was arrested by unknown Cook County Sheriff officers and transferred to the Cook County Central Intelligence Unit ("CIU"). Plaintiff was arrested for allegedly threatening a public official.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 61 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

62. Plaintiff was interrogated by Defendants Dillon, Lesiak, and Rubino regarding her website and Plaintiff asserted her right to counsel. Defendants Dillon, Lesiak, and Rubino had no probable cause to detain Plaintiff for threatening a public official, but notwithstanding the lack of probable cause, Defendants Dillon, Lesiak and Rubino arrested and detained Plaintiff. They did so at the behest of Defendants Podlasek, Gunnigle, and French. Defendants Podlasek and Gunnigle were actively investigating the case, including taking action to subpoena the websites' records.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 62 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

63. The State abandoned its threatening a public officer charge, and on April 13, 2010, a complaint was filed against Plaintiff for violating the Illinois Eavesdropping statute when she recorded her conversations with Pamela Taylor and posted those conversations on her website. Although the alleged complainant on the Eavesdropping charges was Pamela Taylor, the complaint itself does not bear her signature.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 63 of Plaintiff's Complaint. Martin affirmatively states that he had no involvement whatsoever with regard to the eavesdropping prosecution.

64. No probable existed to justify the eavesdropping charges where Plaintiff recorded her conversations with Taylor for the purpose of establishing that the Court Reporters office had falsified transcripts that erroneously suggested that Plaintiff had been arraigned on a superseding indictment when, in fact, she was not even present in court when the alleged arraignment took place. Indeed, Plaintiff herself reported the actions of the court reporter to the F.B.I. and published the recordings on her website.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 64 of Plaintiff's Complaint. Martin affirmatively states that he had no involvement whatsoever with regard to the eavesdropping prosecution.

65. Defendants Podlasek, Gunnigle, French, Rubino, Lesiak, Dillon, and O'Hara singled out Plaintiff for prosecution under the eavesdropping statute despite recognizing that a statutory exemption applied to Plaintiff. Defendants arrested Plaintiff and instituted charges against her purely out of vindictiveness and retaliation.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 65 of Plaintiff's Complaint. Martin affirmatively states that he had no involvement whatsoever with regard to the eavesdropping prosecution.

66. Additionally, City Hall employees and Chicago Tribune reporters regularly recorded conversations without the consent of all parties. Despite having knowledge of these violations of the eavesdropping statute, neither the Illinois Attorney General, nor the Cook County State's Attorney, nor the Cook County Sheriff's Office investigated, arrested, and prosecuted these violators.

ANSWER: Martin has insufficient information to either admit or deny the truth or the falsity of the allegations contained in paragraph 66 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

67. Despite an absence of probable cause to charge Plaintiff under the Illinois Eavesdropping Statute, Defendant O'Hara, at the instruction of Defendants Podlasek and Gunnigle, obtained a search warrant to search Plaintiff's home.

94. DEFENDANT County of Cook is under a duty to supervise the members of the Cook County Sheriff's Police Department and to ensure that the policing activities of the Cook County

Sheriff are run in a lawful manner preserving to the citizens of Cook County the rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed to them by the Constitutions of both the United States of America and the State of Illinois.

ANSWER:

95. Defendant Cook County permitted, encourages, tolerated, and knowingly acquiesced to an official pattern, practice, and/or custom of its officers, particularly Defendants Rubino, Dillon, and Lesiak, falsely arresting individuals under the Illinois Eavesdropping Statute in retaliation for an exercise of free speech by citizens of Cook county, Illinois in violation of the First, Forth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

ANSWER:

96. Defendant Cook County is directly liable for the Plaintiff's damages due to its permanent and well-settled practice or custom of allowing police officers to arrest citizens under the Illinois Eavesdropping statute knowing that probable cause did not justify the arrest solely to retaliate against those citizens for exercising their First Amendment rights thereby creating an atmosphere of illegal and unconstitutional behavior in deliberate indifference and reckless disregard for the welfare of the public at large, including Plaintiff.

ANSWER:

97. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing policy, practice, and custom of Cook County and the Cook County Sheriff's Department, the violation of the constitutional rights of the citizens of Cook County were substantially certain to occur.

ANSWER:

98. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing policy, practice, and custom of Cook County and the Cook County Sheriff's Department, Plaintiff's constitutional rights were violated and Plaintiff was injured and damaged.

110. The actions and/or omissions of Defendants Podlasek, Gunnigle, O'Hara, Dillon, Rubino, Lesiak, French, Markos, Roberts, Martin, Spizzirri and unknown Cook County Sheriff Police officers were unlawful, conscience shocking and unconstitutional, and performed maliciously, recklessly, fraudulently, intentionally, willfully, wantonly, in bad faith, and in such a manner to entitle the Plaintiff to substantial award of punitive damages against defendants.

ANSWER: Denied.

DAMAGES

Plaintiff hereby incorporates, in their entirety, each and every paragraph of this Complaint and by reference makes said paragraphs a part hereof as if fully set forth herein.

111. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned actions and omissions of the defendants, Plaintiff was injured and damaged. The damages for which Plaintiff seeks compensation from the defendants, both jointly and severally, include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Emotional pain and suffering of a past, present, and future nature;
- b. Loss of enjoyment of life of a past, present, and future nature;
- c. Fright, fear, aggravation, humiliation, anxiety, and emotional distress of a past, present, and future nature as a result of the injuries sustained as a result of the illegal actions of defendants;
- d. Loss of earning capacity;
- e. Attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988;
- f. Punitive damages against applicable defendants;
- g. Pre-and post-judgement interest;
- h. Declaratory judgement and injunctive relief holding that the policies, practices or customs of defendants, complained of herein are illegal and unconstitutional;
- i. Preclusion of defendants O'Hara, Dillon, Lesiak, and Rubino from serving as police officers; and
- j. All such relief, both general and specific, to which Plaintiff may be entitled to under the premises.

ANSWER: Martin denies the allegations contained in paragraph 111 of Plaintiff's Complaint, including subparts (a)-(j).

WHEREFORE, Defendant, William Martin respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor and against Plaintiff and award him costs and fees allowed by law and any other such further relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

DEFENDANT'S AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. Martin has qualified immunity. Martin is a government official, namely a police officer, who performs discretionary functions. At all times material to the events alleged in Plaintiff's Complaint, a reasonable police officer objectively viewing the facts and circumstances that confronted Martin could have believed that his actions were lawful, in light of clearly established law and the information he possessed. Martin is therefore entitled to qualified immunity as a matter of law.

2. As to state law claims, under the Illinois Tort Immunity Act, Martin is not liable because the decision to arrest, based upon the information and circumstances known to him at the time, was a discretionary decision for which he is immune from liability. 745 ILCS 10/2-201.

3. Under the Illinois Tort Immunity Act, Martin is not liable for any of the claims alleged because public employees are not liable for their acts or omission in the execution or enforcement of any law, unless such acts or omissions constitute willful and wanton conduct. 745 ILCS 10/2-202.

4. Under the Tort Immunity Act, Martin is not liable for any of Plaintiff's claims because he was a public employee acting within the scope of his employment, and, as such, is not liable for any injury caused by the act or omission of another person. 745 ILCS 10/2-204.

5. Under the Tort Immunity Act, Martin is not liable for injury allegedly caused by the institution or prosecution any judicial or administrative proceeding within the scope of his employment, unless he acted maliciously and without probable cause. 745 ILCS 10/2-208.

6. Plaintiff's federal claims are barred by the two year statute of limitations applicable to claims brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Section 1983.

7. Plaintiff's state law claims are barred by the one year statute of limitations found in section 8-101 of the Illinois Tort Immunity Act (745 ILCS 10/8-101).

8. To the extent that any injuries or damages claimed by Plaintiff against Martin were caused, in whole or in part, by negligent, willful and wanton, and intentional conduct of Plaintiff, even if Martin is liable in damages, the total amount of damages to which Plaintiff would otherwise be entitled must be reduced by application of principles of comparative fault in proportion to the amount of the negligent, willful and wanton and intentional conduct of Plaintiff which were the proximate cause of her injuries. In addition, at the time of the actions alleged in Plaintiff's Complaint, Illinois statute 735 ILCS 5/2-1116 was in effect and reduces a plaintiff's recovery according to her contributory negligence and bars recovery entirely when a plaintiff is more than fifty percent (50%) of the proximate cause of the injury or damage for which recovery is sought.

9. To the extent that Plaintiff failed to mitigate any of her claimed damages or injuries, any verdict or judgment obtained by Plaintiff must be reduced by application of the principle that Plaintiff had a duty to mitigate her claimed damages and injuries, commensurate with the degree of failure to mitigate attributed to Plaintiff by the jury in this case.

10. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of laches due to the fact that she waited an unreasonable length of time to file her Complaint and such unreasonable delay prejudiced Martin.

11. Martin has immunity for punitive damages under 745 ILCS 10/2-102 because he was a public official serving in an official executive, legislative, quasi-legislative or quasi-judicial capacity at the time of the alleged incident.

12. As to Plaintiff's state law claims, Martin is not liable to pay attorneys' fees absent a statute or contractual agreement providing for fees to a successful party.
